Singfest

Come and support the Church Choir and the Oldies Choir taking part in the Singfest Choral Festival: I I am next Saturday (13 October) at St John's church.

Poppies project

All welcome to join the drop-in 'knit and natter' sessions which will continue every Thursday in the Meeting Room in Fellowship House from 11-12.30. Coffee, tea and biscuits provided alongside help, wool and needles if you do not have your own supply. Thank you to everyone who has already contributed. We are aiming for a minimum of 178 to represent every name commemorated in the Warrior Chapel, so there are a few to go! Leaflets with suggested patterns and some wool can also be found in the poppy box in the porch.

FUTURE EVENTS AND NEWS

The First World War in Poetry, Prose and Music 27th October

The First World War in Poetry, Prose and Music: Saturday 27th October in Garden Hall at 7.30pm. The evening follows on from the moving commemorative evening held in 2014 with more material from the war, including recently uncovered archive material about Wimbledon's rôle. Tickets: £5 on sale after the 9.30 service or from Anne Chester (annechester7@gmail.com, 020 8946 1022) or from the Parish Office.

Faure Requiem 3rd November

St Mary's choir and choristers together with the Wimbledon Youth Choir will be performing Faure's Requiem (arr. Michael Higgins for string quartet & organ) alongside works by Barber, Bainton, Rex and Durufle at 7.30pm at St Mary's. Conductor Max Barley. Tickets £10/£15 on the door or email music@stmaryswimbledon.org.

Annual Bereavement Service 4 November

The Annual Bereavement Service to remember loved ones no longer with us will take place at 3pm. If there is someone you wish to be remembered please fill in their name on the sheets provided at the cross aisles.

Church Suite - the new St Mary's Church Members database.

As explained last week - if you didn't receive an EMAIL regarding the Stewardship Campaign the week before last - we DON'T have your EMAIL ADDRESS. If that was the case and you didn't receive a letter by POST this week - we DON'T even have your POSTAL ADDRESS and you are not therefore in the new 'system'. In either case, if you would like us to maintain contact with you as members of our church community please email/phone/speak to NILS or JANE, the Parish Administrator, to let us know (our contact details are on the back of this sheet).

We are committed to respecting and safeguarding your privacy. Soon those with email addresses will be receiving an introductory email about CHURCHSUITE which will include our Privacy Policy and Notice and enable you to set your own privacy levels and how you want us to communicate with you. For those without email - the process will be slightly different - but your privacy and data will be equally respected and safeguarded. I am very happy to help and answer any questions anyone may have, so do ask! Nils

HELP WANTED

Merton Winter Night Shelter

Once again St Mary's will be opening it's doors to the Merton Winter Night Shelter providing food and accommodation for the homeless. St.Mary's will be running the shelter on Wednesday evening into Thursday morning and this year we will be opening at the end of November. The shelter runs for 7 weeks excluding Christmas week. During their stay at the shelter, guests are offered support with the aim of helping people to move on. There are a variety of ways volunteers can help; assisting generally with the shelter, being part of the catering team providing a hot meal, to running a 'transport' system for our guests luggage. If you would like to volunteer or to find out more please contact Jane Bush at jane@thebushes.net.

ANTHEM TEXT

9.30am The Lord is my Shepherd
H Goodall

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

6.30pm-The heavens are telling FJ Haydn

The Heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of his work displays the
firmament.

Today that is coming speaks it the day,
The night that is gone to following night.
The Heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of his work displays the
firmament.

In all the lands resounds the word,
Never unperceived, ever understood.
The Heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of his work displays the
firmament.
