Max is taking a sabbatical

Max will be taking a sabbatical from St Mary's during the Autumn Term (September to December inclusive) to focus on his postgraduate studies - a two-year MA - in conducting and organ at the Royal Academy of Music. During this time, we are pleased that the music - adult choir - will be directed by Anna Lush, a former choral scholar at Trinity College, Cambridge, and now music teacher at Hinchley Wood school. We are grateful to Andrew, Colette and organ scholar Rosanna for filling gaps during this period. If you wish to get in touch with Anna, you can write to her at anna@stmaryswimbleton.org Meanwhile, congratulations to Max who has joined the club, alongside Andrew, as a Fellow of the Royal College of Organists!

ANTHEM TEXT

9.30pm As pants the hart Handel

As pants the hart for cooling streams, so longs my soul for thee, O God.
Tears are my daily food: while thus they say, where is now thy God?
Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself:
for I went with the multitude, and brought them out into the house of God.
In the voice of praise and thanksgiving: among such as keep holy day.
Why so full of grief, O my soul: why so disquieted within me?
Put thy trust in God: for I will praise him.

ANTHEM TEXT

6.30pm Bring us O Lord Harris

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening into the house and gate of heav'n: to enter into that gate and dwell in that house, where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling; but one equal light; no noise nor silence, but one equal music; no fears nor hopes, but one equal possession; no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity; in the habitation of thy glory and dominion, world without end. Amen.

HYMN FOR 11.15AM

Let us build a house (Blue HON432)

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace; here the love of Christ shall end divisions: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace; here as one we claim the faith of Jesus: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat: a banquet hall on holy ground, where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space; as we share in Christ the feast that frees us: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face; let us bring an end to fear and danger: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace, let this house proclaim from floor to rafter: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.
